Dear Professor Jerzy Kojkoł, President of the Polish Society for the Study of Religion,

On behalf of the Executive Committee of the IAHR, I am pleased to inform you that it has been unanimously decided to accept your proposal to host the 23rd IAHR World Congress in Kraków in 2025. Despite the short time given to you and your colleagues, and that in the most unstable social environment, your bid is of such a high quality that it has convinced us that you will be able to manage the congress skillfully and competently. We are especially impressed by your well thought-out congress theme and looking forward to working with you. Thank you so much for your initiative to host our world congress, which, as written in your bid, marks the most important anniversaries of the IAHR as well as of the EASR. Please send our best regards to all of your colleagues, and please be assured that the IAHR EC is ready to start collaborating with you from now on, offering our experience and knowledge about the running of IAHR world congresses.

Sincerely yours,

Satoko Fujiwara, Secretary General of the IAHR
